Hello Brooklyn

The New Work Project offers a unique workspace and meeting hub spanning over 10,000 square feet within a beautifully transformed former foundry in Williamsburg, Brooklyn.

Crafted as a premium alternative to mainstream choices, our space boasts exceptional design, an intimate boutique atmosphere, a thriving community, and a dedicated hospitality team.

Whether you're seeking day passes for a brief visit or are interested in longer-term memberships, we have flexible options to accommodate your needs.

Lounge

Lounge membership offers you the flexibility of working from one of our stunningly designed communal spaces on a hot desk basis.

With weekday and full-time options available, you'll also have access to private phone booths, well-appointed conference rooms, and printing services.

Gallery

Our Gallery areas are open but private and flooded with natural light.

Gallery membership includes an assigned desk, ergonomic task chair, private storage, and a designer desk lamp, along with conference room time and printing credits, all with 24/7 access.

Studio

Our private studios can accommodate teams of up to 10 and offer individual temperature control, sound insulation, and ample natural light.

They all come furnished with custom built-in desks, ergonomic task chairs, private storage, and designer desk lamps. You'll also have access to conference room time and printing credits, all with 24/7 access.

Meeting Spaces

We offer a wide range of meeting and events spaces tailored to your specific needs. Whether it's intimate team meetings or brainstorming sessions, our conference rooms can comfortably host groups of 6 to 8.

For larger corporate gatherings, The Annex, our dedicated meetings and events space, can accommodate groups of up to 14 in the Lounge, or up to 75 in the Main Hall.
